Bill of Rights, State of Florida and due process dues owed and denied by not helping the many people and LARRY RICHARD WETZEL in Civil and Criminal law court cases who do not have attorneys to represent them (Sua Juris, litigants) or who have had their attorney (Michael Griffith 304 E. Government Street, Pensacola, Florida) [32502] other attorney's fired by court or attorney's held in neutral not allowed to adopt certified pleadings, the Florida Supreme Court added these simplified forms and directions to the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure. See: case no. 2013-CA-693. The directions refer to the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure or the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Many of the forms were adapted from the forms accompanying the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Practitioners should refer to the committee notes for those forms for rule history. See: case no. 2013-CA-693. The forms were adopted by the Court pursuant to Family Law Rules of Procedure, 667 So. 2d 202 (Fla. 1995), case no. 2013-CA-693 clearing showing Courts Bias and Prejudice by Court against Civil and Criminal law Litigates in violation of duties and rights owed and denied to parties; In re Petition for Approval of Forms Pursuant to Rule 10-1.1(b) of the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar—Stepparent Adoption Forms, 613 So. 2d 900 (Fla. 1992); Rules Regulating the Florida Bar—Approval of Forms, 581 So. 2d 902 (Fla. 1991). Although the forms are part of these rules, they are not all inclusive and additional forms, as necessary, should be taken from the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure as provided in Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure. Also, the following notice has been included to strongly encourage individuals to seek the advice, when needed, of an attorney who is a member in good standing of the Florida Bar. 1997 Amendment. In 1997, the Florida Family Law Forms were completely revised to simplify and correct the forms. Additionally, the appendices were eliminated, the instructions contained in the appendices were incorporated into the forms, and the introduction following the Notice to Parties was created.

Naples*, 967 So. 2d 944 (Fla 2d D.C.A. 2007) (trial court could not have reached case on merits since it held itself without SMJ). A logical purist might argue that a court lacking SMJ would not even have the power to enter an order dismissing the case for lack of SMJ, but that is countered by the principle that every court has SMJ to determine whether it has jurisdiction. *Sun Insurance Company v.
