PETITION FOR DISCIPLINARY REVOCATION WITHOUT LEAVE TO APPLY FOR READMISSION

Petitioner, Pamela Therese Calderon, and submits this Petition for Disciplinary Revocation pursuant to Rule Regulating Fla. Bar 3-7.12 and states:

1. Petitioner knowingly and voluntarily submits this petition without leave to apply for readmission with full knowledge of its effect.
2. Petitioner is 73 years old and has been a member of The Florida Bar since July 12, 1991, and is subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Florida and the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar.
3. Petitioner has the following discipline history: NONE.
4. The following disciplinary charges are currently pending against the petitioner:

A. Petitioner is currently subject of disciplinary proceedings as to Florida Bar file number 2025-10,097(12C)

B. On March 25, 2022, Ms. Calderon received a $75,000.00 wire transfer into the Pamela T. Calderon, P.A. Trust Account with First Horizon Bank as part of Ms. Calderon's representation of her client Zoraida Ortega in a marital dissolution matter. Ms. Calderon is the sole signer and only person who has access to the funds. These funds were part of the Agreement for Partial Equitable Distribution of proceeds from the sale of the marital residence. On September 7, 2023, Ms. Ortega and Mr. Adrian Caro reached a Marital Settlement Agreement ("MSA"). The MSA stated, in relevant part, that the parties agree that the balance of the proceeds from the sale of their marital home being held in trust by Ms. Calderon will be disbursed as follows:

i. $17,500.00 to the husband, Adrian Caro.

ii. Payment of debt owed to Vida Life Style/Keynote Consulting. As of the date of the agreement ,the balance is approximately $16,125.00.

- iii. The balance of the proceeds from the sale will be paid to Ms. Ortega.
- iv. On November 25, 2022, Ms. Calderon disbursed $4,000.00 to Portfolio Recovery Associates LLC and on February 2, 2024, Ms. Calderon disbursed $5,931.00 to Lloyd & McDaniel. Both disbursements were to settle debt for Ms. Ortega. However, both disbursements were outside of the debt listed in the MSA and also without permission of her client or opposing counsel. On September 7, 2023, Ms. Calderon disbursed $17,500.00 to Adrian Caro as stated in the MSA.
- v. After these disbursements, there should have been a balance of $47,569.00 in Ms. Calderon's trust account. $16,125.00 of these funds would be payable to Vida Life Style/Keynote Consulting and the remaining balance of $31,444.00 would be payable to Ms. Ortega. A review of both the trust and operating accounts showed that no other disbursements were made to or on behalf of Ms. Ortega. Ms. Calderon provided a client ledger for Ms. Ortega dated September 9, 2024. The balance on the ledger was $47,569.00. As of July 31, 2024, Ms. Calderon's trust account had a balance of $185.04. As of July 31, 2024, Ms. Calderon's operating account had a balance of $212.39. As of July 31, 2024, there was a total of $397.43 available in Ms. Calderon's trust and operating accounts to pay the $47,569.00 of trust liabilities that were payable to or on behalf of Ms. Ortega. As of July 31, 2024, Ms. Calderon had misappropriated $47,171.57 of client funds.

C. Petitioner was subsequently suspended from the practice of law on November 12, 2024, pursuant to The Florida Bar's Petition for Emergency Suspension.

5. Petitioner contends that granting this petition will not adversely affect the public interest, the integrity of the courts, or the confidence of the public in the legal profession. Further petitioner contends that granting this petition will not hinder the administration of justice.

6. Petitioner agrees to reimburse the Client Security Fund (CSF) for any and all funds CSF has paid or may pay out for claims resulting from petitioner's misconduct.

7. Petitioner agrees to reimburse The Florida Bar for the costs incurred in his disciplinary cases.

8. Petitioner agrees to submit to a complete audit of any trust account(s) and any other account(s) in which petitioner has placed client funds, if requested to do so by The Florida Bar.

9. Petitioner further agrees to submit a sworn financial affidavit to The Florida Bar attesting to petitioner's current personal and professional financial circumstances on a form to be provided by The Florida Bar within (30) days, if requested.

10. Petitioner further agrees to maintain a current mailing address with The Florida Bar for a period of five (5) years after the disciplinary revocation becomes final. Further, petitioner shall keep the bar advised as to the physical address of petitioner's home and/or business in the event petitioner should utilize a post office box or other type of mail drop service during the five (5) year period after the disciplinary revocation becomes final.

11. Petitioner agrees to the eliminate all indicia of petitioner's status as an attorney on email, social media, telephone listings, stationery, checks, business cards, office signs, or any other indicia of petitioner's status as an attorney, whatsoever.

12. Petitioner understands that the granting of this petition by the Supreme Court of Florida shall serve to dismiss all pending disciplinary cases.

13. This Petition was prepared and filed with the assistance of The Florida Bar due to petitioner's technical limitations.

WHEREFORE, petitioner respectfully requests that this Court grant this petition and order that petitioner's membership in The Florida Bar be revoked without leave to seek readmission.

Respectfully submitted,
