PETITIONER'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME TO SERVE INITIAL BRIEF

Petitioner James Seadler, through his undersigned attorneys, respectfully requests that the Court grant an enlargement of time of five (5) days—two business days—through January 23, 2023, to serve his initial brief. In support of this motion, Petitioner states:

1. Pursuant to this Court's Order dated November 16, 2022, granting Plaintiff's first motion for enlargement, Plaintiff/Petitioner's initial brief is currently due by January 19, 2023.

2. The undersigned's daughter was recently in a hit-and-run wreck and, while she was thankfully not injured, her car was deemed a total loss. She was able to return home from college this week at the last minute to shop for a replacement vehicle. But that has kept the undersigned out of the office for most of the past two days helping his daughter with car-shopping. As a result, counsel does not anticipate being able to complete the brief by the current due date.

3. The undersigned will file the brief no later than January 23, 2023, because he will be leaving town that day for a week.

4. This enlargement is not being sought for delay but only because of his daughter's previously unanticipated visit.

5. Counsel for the Defendant/Respondent has indicated that she has no objection to the requested enlargement.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff/Petitioner respectfully requests the Court grant an enlargement of time of five days, through January 23, 2023, to serve his initial brief in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
