Re: The Florida Bar v. Aram Caldarera Bloom; Supreme Court Case No.: SC23-139
The Florida Bar File No.: 2021-70,182(11L)

Dear Mr. Bloom:

Pursuant to the order of the Supreme Court of Florida dated July 27, 2023, you were suspended from the practice of law for a period of 91 days. The effective date of the suspension is August 28, 2023. The filing of a motion for rehearing does not alter the effective date of the suspension. Because the suspension is for a period of time greater than 90 days, you must petition for reinstatement after the suspension has ended, if you wish to resume the practice of law in Florida. Rule 3-7.10 outlines the procedure and considerations for reinstatement. The court's order also assessed costs in the amount of $1,250.00. Your costs are due in this office no later than September 11, 2023. A Failure to Pay Notice providing important information relating to cost assessments is enclosed. If you are interested in being on a payment plan, and you qualify under the Delinquent Costs paragraph in the attached Failure to Pay Notice, please contact our office immediately.

You must follow the provisions of Rule 3-5.1(h). A copy of the order must be immediately provided to clients, opposing counsel, and certain courts, and you must provide an affidavit to us verifying that this has been done. A form affidavit is enclosed. Please note, providing a copy of the order to the clerk's office does not satisfy this rule. You must provide a copy of the order to the presiding judge. The executed affidavit must be provided to this office within 30 days of the court order to wit: August 28, 2023. If you had no clients or pending matters at the time the order was served in this case, the affidavit should so state. Should you accept employment with a Florida lawyer or law firm, additional requirements apply. Please see Rule 3-6.1 in this respect. In order to avoid the appearance of being a lawyer in good standing, you must eliminate all indicia of attorney status (email, social media, telephone listings, stationery, checks, business cards, office signs, etc.).

Enclosures—Failure to Pay Notice, 3-5.1(h) affidavit

FAILURE TO PAY NOTICE

The Supreme Court of Florida has entered an order assessing costs, fees, imposing fee arbitration and/or restitution obligations. The requirements of this order create certain obligations of which you should be aware.

Making Payment

Please send checks or money orders made payable to "The Florida Bar" to the attention of Lisa F. Chason, The Florida Bar, 651 East Jefferson Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-2300. Please place The Florida Bar file number on the check so we may extend proper credit for the payment.

Credit card payments are accepted via phone call to Lisa F. Chason at (800) 342-8060, ext. 3186.

Delinquent Costs

Costs are deemed delinquent unless they are paid within 30 days after the recommendation becomes final. The time for payment may be extended by The Board of Governors (hereafter the Board) for good cause shown. In order for the Board to approve an extension of time a payment plan must be requested and certain financial information disclosed. Ordinarily payment plans are not approved unless extreme financial hardship is proven through financial affidavits that include a statement of assets and liabilities.

Delinquent Fee Arbitration Award(s)

Fee arbitration awards are deemed delinquent unless paid within 30 days after the award becomes final.

Delinquent Restitution

Restitution is deemed delinquent unless it is made within the time frame and in the manner provided by the recommendation or the agreement imposing the obligation.

Effect of Delinquency

If costs, restitution or fee arbitration awards become delinquent, you will be deemed a delinquent member of The Florida Bar and as such will not be entitled to practice law in Florida until such time as the delinquency is cured. Cure of the delinquency will include making payment of all required obligations, providing proof of payment, filing a petition for removal of delinquency status and payment of a $150.00 reinstatement fee. Thereafter the petition will be reviewed and, if appropriate, the delinquency will be removed.

Lapse of Membership Status

Any member who remains delinquent for a period of five years or longer will lose bar membership. A member whose membership has lapsed may return to the practice of law in Florida only through application to the Florida Board of Bar Examiners, which will include taking and passing the bar examination and successful completion of the character and fitness evaluation.

Maintaining Contact

There may be important information that we need to communicate after the recommendation becomes final. For this reason, it is important to maintain an accurate mailing address, telephone number and other contact information. In fact, The Rules Regulating The Florida Bar mandate that all members of The Florida Bar keep current contact information on file.

If you have any questions about these issues please feel free to contact Lisa F. Chason by telephone at (800) 342-8060, ext. 3186.

Re: The Florida Bar v. Aram Calderera Bloom; Supreme Court Case No. SC23-0139
The Florida Bar File No. 2021-70,182(11L)

Dear Mr. Bloom:

The Florida Bar has not received your affidavit pursuant to Rule 3-5.1(h) as ordered by the Supreme Court of Florida in the above referenced matter. Therefore, you are not in compliance with the terms and conditions of the Court's order dated July 27, 2023.

You were previously notified of this rule by our Lawyer Regulation - Headquarters office on July 28. A second form affidavit is enclosed for your convenience in fulfilling the requirements of this rule that should be sent directly to my attention at the above address within ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Additionally, you have active social media holding yourself out as eligible to practice as of the date of this letter, specifically a Lawyer.com profile (<https://www.lawyer.com/aram-bloom.html>) and a Martindale profile (<https://www.martindale.com/attorney/mr-aram-caldarera-bloom-42073721/>). You are required to remove all indicia of attorney status in order to avoid the appearance of being a lawyer in good standing. You have ten days from the date of this letter to provide a written statement, in the form of an affidavit, that you have taken steps to address the identified profiles and any other social media that indicates you are eligible to practice.

If you fail to comply with these requests, The Florida Bar will file a Petition for Contempt and Order to Show Cause.

YOUR PROMPT ATTENTION IS REQUIRED.
