BY ORDER OF THE COURT:

The Court has set Oral Argument in this case as a remote access video argument via Zoom on November 12, 2024 at 10:30 a.m. Oral Arguments are currently scheduled before Judges Makar, MacIver and Pratt.

No later than fourteen (14) days prior to the scheduled remote video oral argument, each party shall file with this Court a written designation, identifying by name and e-mail address the attorney or party (if not represented by counsel) who will argue the case on that party's behalf. The Court will provide a separate notice regarding technical requirements and instructions for participating in the remote video oral argument.

As both the panel and the time the oral argument is scheduled to begin are subject to change, the parties are advised to check the oral argument calendar posted on the Court's website for the most recent information.

If this is a criminal proceeding where a victim, as defined in article I, section 16(e), Florida Constitution, has invoked the right to notice under article I, section 16(b)(6), the State is directed to provide the victim with notice of this change.

*I hereby certify that the foregoing is
